

I would support the full rating of vacant property, why ? - as you have decided to charge rates on captail value then it is only logical that as a property has a value then it requires rating.

As Councils have to arrange for services to facilitate their area based on property and people and then employ accordingly, it would be wise to at least have income based on all property and potential