

Having read your consultation document, and being aware of the revenue/equity trade off, I would have a cap for households of £300,000 for couples/partners/ married couples, where at least one is 65+, and a cap of £500,000 for everyone else. The cap for pensioners would not be income related, thus saving administration costs, and not providing a disincentive to saving.