

101

22nd June 08

RECEIVED 26 JUN 2008

I wish to protest strongly at the recent increase in rates which unfairly penalises those who have worked hard to maintain their property and improve the area in which they live at the expense of those who make no such effort. For example if I lived on a public council estate I would have the grass cut at ratepayers expense.