

I strongly believe there has to be a cap on the value above which rates do not increase, e.g. house value of £3000,000

There should be a reduction for single occupancy

Landlords should not be exempt from paying rates

There must be a system for ascertaining an ability to pay.