

Dear Peter

10 June 07

Being part of the United Kingdom I am concerned that my rates are not "in line" with England. When I lived there, my rates were calculated on my living alone in my property. My sister tells me that she has 25% discount (Senior citizen).

I have just paid £1300 from my modest £10,600 per year pensions as I am 80 years of age.

Please, Peter, would you give this consideration: REDUCTION FOR PENSIONERS.
Very many thanks, and all good wishes.
